

The Art of Enjoying the High Holy Days

Tuesday, September 1 at 7:00 pm

Congregation Etz Chaim,

1190 Indian Hills Parkway

Marietta, Ga 30068

- Join the rabbis, Cantors and Educators of five East Cobb and Roswell synagogues and the Lisa F. Brill Institute of Jewish Learning for an evening of study to prepare spiritually for the High Holy Days.
- Participants will have the opportunity to take two 50-minute classes on a wide variety of topics that will explore and explain the customs, rituals, prayers, themes, and music of the High Holy Days.
- Participants may register in advance through Congregation Etz Chaim or you may register at the door.

Fees: $10 per person payable to Congregation Etz Chaim

1190 Indian Hills Pkwy Marietta, GA 30068

For more information, please call Rabbi Kerbel at 770.973.0137

Sponsored by
The Lisa F. Brill Institute of Jewish Learning at the MJCCA
Congregation Etz Chaim
Temple Beth Tikvah
Chabad of Cobb
Temple Kehillat Chaim
Temple Kol Emeth

★marcus
JCC
atlanta

Shalom
שלום C BB

Brought To You By

Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta
Live Generously.™

The Art of Enjoying the High Holy Days

Evening Schedule

Session #1: 7:15 PM - 8:15 PM

- Rabbi Shalom Lewis - "Two High Holy Day Personalities: Abraham and Jonah"
- Rabbi Ephraim Silverman - "Mystical Insights into the High Holy Days"
- Rabbi Steve Lebow - "Love Your Neighbor? What Rosh HaShanah Teaches us About Dealing with Difficult People"
- Cantor Nancy Kassel - "The Melodies of the High Holy Days"
- Rabbi Donald Tam - "Renewal in the Jewish Historical Experience: Lessons in Understanding the High Holy Days"

Session #2: 8:30 PM - 9:30 PM

- Rabbi Paul Kerbel - "The Alarm Clock of the High Holy Days: The Meaning of the Shofar"
- Cantor Mark Perman - "A Musical Guide to the High Holy Days"
- Dr. Shelley Buxbaum - "Good Things Come in Threes: Tefillah, Teshuvah, Tzedakah"
- Rabbi Fred Greene - "Finding Hope, Renewal & Healing through the Days of Awe"